Europe Plunges Into War; Greatest Conflict in World's History is On Germany and Austria Against Russia, France, England and Servia

FOUR GREAT POWERS OF EUROPE IN WAR

GERMANY BOMBARDS RUSSIAN PORT AND INVADERS FRANCE LIBAU IN FLAMES.

VESSEL IS INTERCEPTED

Four British Battleships Take Charge of Gold-Laden German Boat—Russia Invades Germany—France Says Treaty Violated.

Berlin, via Brussels.—The small cruiser Augsburg has sent the following report to Berlin by wireless: "Am bombarding the naval harbor at Libau and engaged with the enemy's cruiser. The naval port of Libau is in flames."

London.—The Kronprinzessin Cecilie of the North German Lloyd line, carrying $13,000,000 in gold and silver, has been intercepted by four British cruisers. They are said to be escorting her to Southampton.

It is understood here that the Kronprinzessin had received orders from her owners to proceed to Hamburg without calling at any British port.

With the big German liner and her great cargo of gold in their charge, the British cruisers could capture her instantly if war should be declared between England and Germany.

The gold was shipped from New York and is consigned to British and French bankers. It is assumed that England has determined to see that it is properly delivered to the consignees.

London.—It is stated on high diplomatic authority that the German high sea fleet passed the Kiel canal, steaming westward.

Paris.—The Temps prints a dispatch from Montmédy which reports cannon firing in the direction of Longwy.

Two officers and 20 men of a German patrol have been killed at Longwy. It is reported the German attack was repelled.

London.—Four great powers of Europe, Austria-Hungary, Russia, France and Germany, are engaged in actual warfare, but two of them, Germany and France, have not openly declared war against each other, as far as is known here, and have not even severed diplomatic relations.

News of the progress of hostilities is vague and conflicting, owing to the severe censorship everywhere. It is alleged that the Germans poured into Luxembourg 100,000 men, who will concentrate on the French frontier. Actual German invasion of France occurred at Nancy and Longwy, while a battle is reported to have taken place at Nancy.

From the Russo-German frontier come reports that Russians invaded Germany near Schwidnau.

Servia, the original cause of the upheaval, seems to have been almost lost sight of. The Austrians, according to reports from Nish, virtually have ceased operations against Servia in order to meet the greater danger in Russia.

Montenegro has mobilized to assist Servia and is reported to be bombarding Cattaro, in Dalmatia.

Germany's ultimatum to France has been ignored or rejected.

The explanation of this would appear to be that Germany and France are each seeking to throw upon the other the onus of beginning a war that may plunge all Europe into bloodshed.

In fact, while the nations of Europe are vying with others in protesting their desire to maintain peace.

In this curious situation France, according to British opinion, has the strongest justification. She was the last to mobilize and to have taken the greater precautions to avoid frontier collisions.

On the other hand Germany, in addition to invading French territory without making a formal declaration of war, has violated the neutrality of Luxembourg and declines to give any promise to respect Belgian neutrality.

The efforts of the British ambassador at Berlin to secure such a pledge have been wasted. It is difficult to see how Great Britain can avoid being drawn into the conflict to protect Belgian and Dutch neutrality. On this point Premier Asquith's official announcement in parliament is awaited with intense anxiety. The British

News Snapshots Of the Week

Austria declared war on Servia, and at once the European war crisis assumed a most dangerous stage. It was feared that at any day the triple alliance, Germany, Italy and Austria, would array itself against the triple entente, Russia, England and France, in a general conflict that would rip Europe wide open, cost millions of lives, bring starvation and ruin upon millions of homes, plunge great nations into helpless debt and change the political map of Europe. The illustration shows the following: Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany, Czar Nicholas of Russia, type of German cavalry, type of Russian Cossacks, Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary and Crown Prince Alexander of Servia.

house is no longer under any illusions as to the gravity of a crisis which transcends anything in their experience.

Short of actual formal mobilization the British government is taking all necessary steps to meet a situation unprecedented in the nation's history.

London.—The Daily Telegraph says many of the provisions of London already have been cleared and little is left for the poor. The people are stocking their cellars. Returning tourists report French and German officials are seizing automobiles belonging to American and other travelers.

Sweden is Neutral. Stockholm.—The Swedish government issued an official notification of its strict neutrality in the European conflict.

BATTLE FOUGHT IN THE AIR

Twenty-Six Are Killed in First Fight in Air—French Flyer Roland Garros wrecks German Dirigible.

Brussels.—The first battle in the air was fought near Nancy, between a French aeroplane and a German dirigible. Every man engaged in the fight was killed.

According to the reports received here Roland Garros, the French flyer, sighted the German dirigible shortly after it had crossed the border from Alsace Lorraine. The dirigible was an enormous affair of the Zeppelin type and was manned by 25 German soldiers. It is supposed to have been sent up for scout duty from the German column which crossed the French frontier at Cleary.

Garros, who had been scouting about the territory for some time after news of the German invasion was received, sighted the dirigible at a height of more than 1,000 feet. He drove his fleet aeroplane straight at the dirigible.

Instantly the huge gas bag exploded with a terrific detonation, followed by a burst of flame. The monoplane, hopelessly entangled in the wreck of the dirigible, crashed with it to the earth, engulfed in flames and without a possible chance to clear itself from the debris.

Garros and the 25 German soldiers were probably dead before they struck the ground. All that could be recovered from the smoldering pile after the flames had been quenched was some charred fragments of human flesh and bones, according to the report received here.

It is supposed that Garros knew when he headed his monoplane for the cumbersome, comparatively slow-flying dirigible, that a collision was fatal to himself as well as to the German flyers. Such advice as had been received here concerning the battle, state that Garros did not hesitate for the fraction of a second when called upon to throw his own life away in the service of his country, and this spirit of self-sacrifice, military experts declare, will undoubtedly be the most characteristic feature of future engagements in the air, which perhaps may be of frequent occurrence within the next few days.

As a large fleet of German dirigibles is known to be at the border and a corresponding large flotilla of French monoplanes is ready to repel them when they cross French territory.

PRESENT WAR A SETTLEMENT OF OLD QUARRELS

Natural Ending of Long-Standing Ill Feeling Between Austria and the Slav Nations.

LONG HISTORY OF INTRIGUE

Game of Diplomacy Played by the Czar and Francis Joseph Has Hitherto Been Won by the Latter, But Today Conditions Are Changed.

Washington.—Russian diplomacy, intriguing in the Balkans, may largely be blamed for the present Austro-Servian or Austro-Slavic situation, for while it in appearance is a quarrel between the little Slav state of Servia and the great empire of Austria-Hungary, in fact it is a quarrel of long standing between Austria and all the Slav nations, not excluding Russia.

Bosnia and Herzegovina, once Servian provinces, in 1909 belonged to Turkey, although they were occupied by Austrian troops and in every way but on paper were parts of the Austrian empire. Austria had been quietly planning to annex the two little Slav provinces for some time, but could not quite see her way clear to do it without arousing the strenuous protest from the powers. When the Turkish constitutional revolution took place in 1909 Austria saw her opportunity and took advantage of it. She maintained that because Bosnia and Herzegovina under the new Turkish regime would have to send delegates to the Turkish Parliament it was better that Austria annex them, which she promptly proceeded to do in face of the protests of Russia, France and Great Britain.

Bowed to Superior Force.

It was maintained by the powers that Austria's act in annexing the Slav provinces was a violation of the agreement made at the general European Congress which met at Berlin shortly after the Russo-Turkish war. Austria remained firm, however, and when the powers became threatening Germany came to Austria's aid. Germany was prepared for war, as was Austria. Great Britain, France and Russia were not prepared for war, and with both Austria and Germany facing them they were compelled to submit to Austria's seizure of Bosnia and Herzegovina and accept their humiliating defeat with as good grace as possible.

What Russia could not do by force of arms she then proceeded to do by intrigue and diplomacy. Secret agents were sent into all of the Balkan states and into those provinces of Austria and Germany populated thickly with Slavs. Ever since that time a constant campaign to arouse the Austrian and German Slavs has been maintained by Russian secret agents.

Dissatisfaction and revolution was fermented among the Slavs of Austria by Russian agents, and it is even said that Russian secret agents aided

Events That Have Led to the Conflict in Europe

The causes of the war which has set all Europe ablaze are as follows:

The century-old hatred of the Serbs and the Austrians, each for the other, growing out of the struggle of the Serbs for unity and freedom, in which Austria, through her possession of Servian provinces, effectually bars the way.

The impassioned rage of the Servians that they who have "shorn off the yoke of the Turk" in territory once held by the sultan, have been unable to win one foot of ground or a single subject from the dual monarchy.

The deep resentment of Austria at the murder of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the throne, on June 28, through a Servian plot, which brought at the long smoldering bitterness of the two peoples to a climax.

The ultimatum delivered to Servia by Austria demanding punishment of the archduke's slayers.

Servia's reply, termed by the Austrian Foreign office "unsatisfactory."

Precipitation of France, Germany and Italy into the crisis by Russia's determination to block any change in the balance of power in the Balkans.

The known purpose of Russia to use all her armies to this end makes that great empire in effect an ally of Servia, and in turn draws France to support the Russian standard through an offensive and defensive alliance.

Russia's espousal of the Servian cause automatically brings into play the triple alliance, in which Germany and Italy are bound to rally to the support of their ally, Austria.

In the formation of Slavonic societies in Austria and Germany the objects of which were the freeing of the Slav provinces now under Teutonic rule and the formation of a great Slav empire, for which the Balkan league was to be the foundation. Russian diplomacy brought about the alliance of Balkan nations for the war with Turkey, in which war little Servia greatly distinguished herself.

Austrian Diplomacy Strong.

The fine hand of the Austrian foreign office was seen in the Balkan plot, however, soon after the defeat of Turkey. Both Austria and Germany had confidently expected to see Turkey the victor, and it is said that the Teutonic diplomats were sadly disappointed at the outcome. Austria busied herself immediately, and by the exercise of either a finer or more subtle brand of diplomacy than that exercised by Russia, succeeded in convincing the powers that Albania, which had been taken possession of by the Servians, should be made an independent kingdom, but in reality under Austrian and German domination. Consequently the Serbs were relieved of part of the fruits of victory and a German prince, William of Wied, was installed as King of Albania with the consent of the powers in the face of the diplomatic opposition of Russia. Unable to help themselves Servia and the Balkan nations were compelled to acquiesce.

Work Against Balkan Alliance. In the Balkan league, however, the triple alliance, composed of Austria, Germany and Italy, found a valuable adjunct of the opposing powers, the triple entente, composed of Russia, Great Britain and France, since the Balkan league had been the outcome of Russian diplomacy. Austria then set about to smash up the Balkan alliance. The result of this was the second Balkan war, in which Servia and Greece, with Montenegro, were pitted against Bulgaria. The latter country was given all possible assistance by Austria, but Austria was again due to be disappointed, for Bulgaria was sorely defeated.

Besides her troubles abroad, Austria was having difficulties at home. Nearly half of Austria's population is Slav, although, of course, the ruling forces are Teutonic and Magyar, or Hungarian. The Serbs of the various Slav provinces of Austria were fomenting revolution. Servia was dreaming of regaining Bosnia and Herzegovina, Russian intrigue was making trouble, and Austria's aid of Bulgaria had alienated the affections of Roumania, which hitherto had been friendly to the triple alliance, but which now practically became a part of the triple entente.

Austria's Small Victory.

As a result of it all, Austria gained but one small victory. By causing the formation of the Albanian kingdom, Austria had prevented Servia from obtaining a seaport, the principal ambition of the Slav monarchy. But in doing this Austria brought herself into complication with Italy, which country had cast envious eyes on Albania, and it looked for a time as if there would be serious clashes between the two nations.

Austria then found herself in a somewhat precarious situation. She was threatened with destruction, intrigue, diplomacy and revolution. On her border she was threatened by Serb and Roumanian. Russia was a serious danger in the North. Austria's only salvation was Germany, and if Germany would stand by Austria, it was the opinion of Austrian statesmen that it would be better for Austria to settle the Slav question at once with her armies rather than wait and perhaps be destroyed in the long run. A demand for war became strong. Newspapers and public men were practically demanding a test of strength between the triple alliance and the triple entente, when the Archduke Ferdinand was slain as the alleged result of a Serb plot, hatched, it was claimed, in Servia. Austria promptly seized upon this as a pretext for demanding a "show down."

Situation Different From 1909.

The situation had changed since 1909. Russia was prepared for war, and it was believed would welcome it. France was preparing for war, as also was Great Britain. If Russia came to the aid of Servia, it was certain that Germany would mobilize her armies in support of Austria. Germany in the field would be certain to bring France into the situation, with a view to avenging herself for the Franco-Prussian war. Great Britain then would be expected to stand by her allies of the triple entente. Diplomats also argued that Great Britain would consider that Austria and Germany opposing Russia, France and the Balkan States, might triumph, leaving England alone to face the question of German expansion, and that therefore it would be better for Great Britain to take part in the war and aid Russia, France and the Balkans in putting a final end to German and Austrian power in Europe.

"NEAR BEER" GETS BLACK EYE. CASE APPEALED.

A case of more than passing interest in the city court was that of Tom Pendleton, proprietor of the Busy Bee restaurant, charged with selling an intoxicating beverage. The first trial, occurring Monday afternoon, resulted in a hung jury; another trial was had Tuesday resulting in conviction.

The case will be taken to the circuit court by Mr. Pendleton.

It is generally understood that this is what might be termed a test case. A number of other firms are selling a concoction the same or very similar to what Tom handled. In the absence of City Attorney T. R. Powell, County Attorney Roney represented the city and Judge F. S. Moore and Atty. M. B. Shaw the defense. About thirty witnesses were introduced to swear for and against the merits of the drink—known as "Amber Bead Beer." Chief of Police Wright bought from Pendleton six bottles of the dope which were sampled by a number of men who testified that they believed it was beer. The defense introduced witnesses who swore they had drunk as much as five bottles of it at one time and had found it non-intoxicating; others could "feel it" after drinking a half bottle. Pendleton claimed he handled it with every assurance that it would not produce intoxication.

So it will be seen that it is not so much a case of prosecuting Mr. Pendleton as getting in behind the "dope" business and ascertaining whether it may be legally sold. It will doubtless now remain for the circuit court to make this decision.

Quite a bunch of other cases, all under the head of breach of the peace and most of them submitted, were disposed of by Judge Amberg since last report, resulting in the following persons being fined $5 and costs each: Willis Talley, N. T. Bynum, Garland Crawford, Dick Henry, H. L. Hampton, Rodney Jones, Erse Ward, Chas. Frost, Dr. Longnecker, Wm. Jackson, Elvis Walls, Walter Menees, Wilford Hamill, Will Wright and Lon Bynum.

TRIED BY TELEPHONE.

A unique trial was had at Fulton and Hickman this afternoon, the telephone being used by County Judge E. J. Stahr to pass sentence.

June Eddings, of Fulton, was arrested for carrying a pistol. He submitted his case by telephone to Judge Stahr and the Judge fined him $50 and a jail sentence of ten days. He is in jail serving the sentence. Under the new law magistrates do not have jurisdiction to try pistol-toters.—Fulton Leader.

Hickman will never have a "skyscraper" until someone sets a precedent. Mr. W. A. Dodds now has the opportunity to start something in this line, and says he will, if he can get tenants. About five stories on his corner lot would look good. Say three floors for a department store, a fourth for offices and fifth for lodges, all served by electric elevators. Why not? Who will take the first three floors? Get busy.

A Thought For Mother.

Yes, most of the summer is past and mother failed to get her vacation. And now comes the fall sewing, the winter garments to be chosen, perhaps made; the housecleaning with all of its attendant horrors, the picking of autumn dainties, which will give zest to many a winter feast, and the general management of the whole domestic machinery, so that no little part will become clogged or its squeaking disturb the harmony of the home. As summer has brought mother no vacation, no change of scenes, what wonder then if her face is pale, her step a little slower, her smile no less sweet but less frequent than of old? Every one is sorry for mother's disappointments, but all take it as a matter of course as she never complains. So the domestic mill goes grinding on until one day there is all confusion in the household; the machinery is all awry, for the hand that guided it has lost its cunning and dropped nerveless by her side. Mother has borne the burden too long, it becomes too heavy and she is crushed beneath it. Is it this a true picture we have sketched for you? Girls, you know it is so, and the conscious blush rises to your cheeks and you hang your heads and are ashamed of your own selfishness. We write this that you may be more thoughtful of mother. You will never regret any sacrifice you have made to lighten her burdens and bring into her life all the sweetness possible.

Mother.

Many a man has grown eloquent in thought and word as he recalled his mother. The word means something different to every man, but it means much to all men. A man who always speaks well of his mother is generally a man who can be trusted. We note the fact that one of the recent candidates for vice-president, in making a speech a few years ago, paid a beautiful tribute to his mother. The campaign committee are now using that part of his speech with the assertion that a man who remembered his mother like that ought to be a man who could be trusted in the public service and this is what he said:

"I think back through the years lean and fat, good and bad, to my earliest recollection. I saw a woman with an eye that flashed swift as an archangel's wing and a mouth that breaks with laughter and hardens at sight of wrong, singing lullabies; a woman who, with hand grasping the unseen hand, walks the brief-bordered paths of life unashamed, unafraid, unharmed. She is clad in garments of beauty to me, and age does not soil them, nor years make them cheap and tawdry. Her tongue is without guile, having never been the messenger of a lie. It is seventeen years since her soul went home to God, and her fingers became to me the fingers of an angel; but I have not forgotten all she said. She told me there was a Santa Claus and I believed her. But he brings me no longer drums and fiefs. But he still brings to me the vision of my mother and the music of that angelic chorus which sang at creation's dawn and at the hour of man's redemption."

Smoothe out the wrinkles on your forehead when you go to dinner. This will help your wife to retain her youthful appearance.

The Book of Books.

No fragment of a battle ever survived so many battles as the Bible; no citadel ever withstood so many hurricanes and was swept by so many storms. And yet it stands. It has seen the rise and fall of Daniel's four empires. Assyria bequeaths a few mutilated figures to the riches of our national museum. Media and Persia, like Babylon which they conquered, have been weighed in the balance and long ago found wanting. Greece faintly survives in its historical fame. "This living Greece no more," and iron Rome of the Caesars has long since ceased to boast. And yet the book that foretells all still survives. While the nations, kings, philosophers, systems, institutions, have died away. The

EMMERSON MAKES GOOD.

Emmerson's Golden Rod, presenting a comedy drama, "The Power of Truth," delighted their audience here Monday evening. It was the best river show seen here for a number of years; clean, wholesome entertainment. There was none of the vulgarity which has of late become so common on both opera and boat stages. Emmerson strikes the key note of popular demand by going back to the old regime of sure enough drama and eliminating the clap-trap stuff, which has practically put a large per cent of shows out of the game. A return engagement from Emmerson will be welcomed.

DODDS SENDS COTTON SEED TO ORIENT.

S. L. Dodds, who originated an developed Dodds' Early Prolific cotton seed, received a letter this week from the Mokpo Agricultural Station, at Mokpo, Chosen, Japan, for a sample of his cotton seed, and he is arranging to send five pounds of this year's seed to them as soon as it comes in.

Mr. Dodds advertised his cotton seed extensively last season and the reputation of his product has extended across the seas to the Far East.

Great is the science of advertising and the ability to deliver the goods.

M. T. Byrum and Jim Eddings, both charged with carrying a pistol, were given the sentence imposed by law this week. The sentence is $50 fine, ten days in jail and two years disfranchisement. Judge Stahr informs us that there is no remitting the sentence as there is a very strict penalty on the trial judge for remitting any of the penalty of this law, which was passed by the last legislature in an effort to get the "pistol toters."

Huntingdon's baseball team came up to Hickman last Thursday for two games, but were given such a defeat by Hickman in the first game that they thought it would be no use to stay for the second. Woods, of Martin, pitched for Hickman and allowed only four hits. It was mainly because of his good pitching that Hickman "brought home the bacon" by the score of 8 to 1. We have a good bunch of ball tossers here, and with the proper support and organization would be the means of a good deal of advertising for Hickman.

Ben Walker has returned from several days stay at Three States.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

When Pa is Sick.

When pa is sick
He's scared to death
An' ma an' us
Just holds our breath
He crawls in bed
And puffs and grunts,
An' does all kinds
Of crazy stunts.
He wants "Doc" Brown
An' mighty quick;
For when pa's ill,
He's awful sick.
He grasps and groans,
An' sort o' sighs,
He talks so queer,
An' rolls his eyes,
Ma jumps and runs,
An' all of us,
An' all the house
Is in a fuss.
An' peace and joy
Is mighty skeerce—
When pa is sick,
It's something fierce.

When Ma is Sick.

When ma is sick,
She pegs away;
She's quiet though
Not much t' say
She goes right on
A-doin' things,
Er ever sings.
She says she don't
Feel extra well;
But then it's just
A kind o' spell;
She'll be all right
Tomorrow, sure.
A good old sleep
Will be the cure
An' pa he sniffs
An' makes no kick,
For women folks
Is always sick,
An' ma she smiles,
Lets on she's glad—
When ma is sick,
It ain't so bad.

How To Give Quinine To Children.

FEBRILINE is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is a Tasteless Syrup, pleasant to take and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine. Does not nauseate nor cause nervousness nor ringing in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. Ask for 2-ounce original package. The name FEBRILINE is blown in bottle. 25 cents.

Summer Constipation Dangerous.

Constipation in summer time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water during the hot weather, thus injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Ptomaine Poisoning and other ills are natural results. Po-do-Lax will keep you well, as it increases the bile, the natural laxative, which rids the bowels of the congested poisoning waste. Po-do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose tonight. 50c. at your druggist.

LATEST AVIATION WONDERS

It is only five and one-half years since Wilbur Wright held the world's aviation record for altitude at 360 feet. A few days ago Heinrich Oelerich near Leipzig, Germany, rose in his biplane to a height of 24,600 feet. These few years, therefore, may be said to span the whole evolutionary period of high flying, for it is improbable that man will ever be able to rise much beyond Oelerich's mark.

Few men can retain command of their faculties in the rare atmosphere of those upper regions, where an aviator needs all his powers. Even the birds fail there. There is but one bird, the condor of the Andes, that can match this bold German's flight. Carrier pigeons at 20,000 feet, flutter down heavily into denser air. No man has ever reached 25,000 feet in mountain-climbing, though Dr. Frederick A. Cook, of north pole fame, aspired to achieve that feat by ascending Mount Everest, the sovereign of the Himalayas.

A little over four years ago the world was applauding the first flight across the historic English channel, by Louis Bleriot. Since then channel flights have become common. Just the other day Walter L. Brook, an American aviator, flew the entire distance over sea and land from London to Paris and back, in seven hours and three minutes. He covered the 500 miles at an average speed of 71½ miles an hour, half the time by the fastest passage by boat and train.

Now comes a feat which far surpasses these in historic importance and in its appeal to the imagination. It is the proposed crossing of the Atlantic by Lieut. Porte, of the Rodman-Wanamaker expedition. The Curtiss flying boat, on which his hopes are based, has met all expectations since the designer equipped her with "sea sleds" under the whale-shaped body to bring her to the surface of the water easily in starting flight. Her speed and carrying power, once she is in the air, seem equal to the great undertaking. The craft is to be shipped to Newfoundland soon, and in a month from now may be on her way carrying the new Columbus of the air from America to Europe.

If she succeeds, what subsequent aviation feat can interest a world jaded with wonders?

ANSWER THE CALL

Hickman People Have Found that This is Necessary.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench.
A little cause may hurt the kidneys.
Spells of backache often follows
Or some irregularity of the urine.
A splendid remedy for such attacks,
A medicine that has satisfied thousands
Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a special kidney remedy.
Many Hickman people rely on it.

Here is Hickman proof.
C. A. Watson, Hickman, Ky., says: "For years I had kidney complaint. I suffered from pains in the small of my back, which were always more severe if I stooped or lifted. My back ached at night and in the morning, I was very lame. I became tired easily and occasionally had nervous spells. Headaches bothered me and I was subject to dizzy spells, during which there was a blurring of my sight. When I caught cold it settled on my kidneys. At such times the passages of the kidney secretions became too frequent. This was particularly annoying during the night and I was often obliged to get up several times. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at Helm & Ellison's Drug Store. Two days after using them, I got great relief. After I had taken one box, I was cured."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that C. A. Watson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A PRAYER TO TEDDY.

Our most remarkable and ever changing Theodore Thunderbolt, thou who wert for a third term or bust and busted; thou who wert for a new nationalism straight from the shoulder; thou who canst tell one of thy followers to yell and he will; thou who canst command him to go and he will go or come and he will come; thou who canst entertain all sorts of people in a very brief space of time; thou who canst be speaking a great speech on politics one hour and the next feeding nigger clubs on fried chicken; we thy faithful servants and obedient lickspittles of former days call upon thy greatness from the back door of thy kithen to express our deep humiliation and perplexity.

Invincible boss and perpetual nominee, we are greatly confused. We are worse perplexed than we have ever been in our lives before. We have suffered humiliation. We have lied liked Turks and had it proved on us. We have stuffed ballot boxes and had it proven on us, and come near going to the rock pile. In 1908 out in Ohio we bought votes for Taft and fifteen hundreds were fined in one county.

Now, dear Teddy, if you are to be the boss of our combined factions in 1916 we want to know it right now. We suffered defeat and disgrace for our portion of the 1912 battle. But, Master Roosevelt, during all these days of our party's dissolution and trial one bright consolation that illuminated our pathway. There has been one mighty slogan that would always rally the boys; that would always set the blood of the Southern republicans to tingling. That was Theodore and a third term. If it must be you, dear Teddy, old boy, in 1916, why not come out and say so, and rally the factions together.

Honorable master, we are terribly in earnest. We have been hiding out in the woods for three days now. We can't face the dagdummed democrats on any face to face facts now. Take our case in hand, and take it quick. Don't matter about tariff, or trust or free sugar, or free wool. Put croton oil in the gravy. Fit it any way to end our pitiful predicament and we will ever praise thy great and glorious name as long as there is a button left on our trousers or a drop of blood in our bodies. Amen.—The Hornet.

DON'T TAKE CALOMEL. HERE'S A BETTER REMEDY.

Taking calomel is mighty risky and often times dangerous. You ought to get along without taking calomel yourself or giving it to your family, when you can get a remedy that takes its place. Dodson's Liver Tone is an agreeable vegetable liquid that starts the liver to action just as surely as calomel does. But, unlike calomel, Dodson's Liver Tone does not stimulate the liver too much. It gives relief gently. Calomel acts so strongly that it may leave you worse than you were at first, and calomel also sometimes causes salivation. Dodson's Liver Tone works well and never harms.

A large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone is sold for fifty cents by Hickman Drug Co. It always has given such perfect satisfaction that your money will be given back to you with a smile if you buy a bottle and are not perfectly satisfied with it in every way.

A BANK ACCOUNT IS LIFE'S BEST INSURANCE

IN time of death the bank account proves itself the BEST KIND of insurance. You can get your money IMMEDIATELY and without question. During life the bank account proves EQUALLY VALUABLE, provided it is kept at a figure that really insures, and it pays BETTER INTEREST. Get your cash in the bank. Leave it there. You can't beat that kind of insurance. This requires DETERMINATION and sometimes SELF SACRIFICE. But it pays. A bank account WITH US is your BEST POLICY.

CORONER'S INVESTIGATION OF THE WEHMAN MURDER.

The coroner's jury sworn to hear the evidence and render a verdict as to the cause of Geo. Wehman's death was called to meet last Saturday, but postponement was taken.

The court room was packed Monday morning and the heat was intense, but the examination proceeded.

About twenty-five witnesses had been summoned and eight or ten were examined before noon and several in the afternoon. Adjournment was taken at 3 o'clock until Wednesday. Witnesses stated that Mr. Wehman came to town after supper on the night of July 11 with Mr. Dula with whom he boarded, and separated, but planned to meet at Alexander's livery stable at about 10 or 10:30 o'clock to go home together. Mr. Wehman went to a bath room and was last seen at 9:30 o'clock crossing the street and going diagonally in the direction of Milliken's marble yard. At about 9:30 o'clock Frank Dietzel took a horse and buggy from Alexander's stable, witnesses said, and drove out alone, saying he would be gone about two hours. He asked for a gentle horse.

When the horse and buggy were returned the driver was not seen, as the stable hands were at the side of the stable attending to some hot horses. The horse was hot and appeared to be very nervous and excited, so much so that the stable men commented about it. Witnesses stated they had seen Dietzel rabbit-hunting several times lately in fields near the old well where the body was thrown and that he was seen driving that road the evening of the fatal night.

In settling his account at the livery barn several days ago, Dietzel stated that he had not driven a horse on the night of the eleventh.

It was shown that Wehman always had considerable money on his person.

Wednesday morning's investigation proceeded with members of defendant's family on the witness stand. H. Dietzel, Sr., stated that he and Mrs. Dietzel sat on the front porch until 10:30 o'clock on the night of the 11th and then went to bed. They had just retired when Frank came in and Mr. Dietzel called to him. The young ladies had returned from a walk to the church corner, and were in their room, when they heard Mr. Dietzel calling Frank.

Mr. Burdick testified as to the stains on the money. Wehman was in the habit of carrying money in a tobacco sack. At one time Wehman left with Mr. Burdick $2,500 in money that he had saved, and Mr. Burdick remonstrated with him for carrying money in his pocket. Wehman was known to have as much as three hundred dollars in his pockets all the time.

Dr. Robinson assisted in removing the water from well the next day and found in the bottom of the well a hat with a brick in it, and old towel, and a cake of soap. Dr. Robinson was one of the persons deputized by the sheriff to aid in making the arrest of Dietzel, and was present when the arrest was made, and heard Dietzel say to his father that he had not had any trouble with George Wehman, and that he had not murdered him. On the way to the jail he said Dietzel said to the officers that the last time he saw deceased was about 9 o'clock on the Saturday night that he disappeared, in front of the Ligon furniture store.

Clara Wehman, daughter of the deceased, said that she and her father had gone to Memphis on Saturday before the 4th of July and that she saw the purse or sack in which her father carried his money and that it was an old red sack; that when shown some of the money supposed to have been at one time the property of Wehman, she partially identified, she said it looked like the money he had with him, and that he had about $200. Wehman told his daughter that he had been out riding with Dietzel until late one night, that Dietzel said he wanted to see a man near Hickman, that they drove to a point near Hickman, came back and went to Rives before going home; also that Frank Dietzel wanted to borrow money from him, but that he had refused to let him have it; that if his father would not let him have it he would not.

At this point Frank Dietzel was called and placed upon the witness stand, and stated that the last time he had seen Wehman was on Saturday night, July 11, about 9 o'clock, in front of the Charley Calhoun testified as to the blood-stained buggy blanket, but was unable to say who used it.

Lon Logan identified a horse and buggy at Alexander's stable as the same he saw on the night of the 11th near the woods lot where the old well is located.

The coroner's jury closed hearing Wednesday. The jury went to Mrs. Dunn's to take her testimony, and finished after a little more proceedings at the courthouse.

The following verdict was rendered:

"State of Tennessee, Obion County.—An inquisition holden in Union City, in the county and state aforesaid, on the 24th day of July, 1914, before S. R. Bratton, Justice of Peace, acting coroner of said county, upon the body of Geo. Wehman, there being dead, by the jurors whose names are here subscribed, who upon their oaths do say, to the best of their knowledge and belief, that the party found in the well two miles west of Union City on the 24th day of July was the body of Geo. Wehman. We further state that we are positive that he came to his death by a gunshot or pistol wound on the back of his head. We further state from the best of our knowledge and belief, in accordance with all the evidence introduced, that the murder was committed by Frank Dietzel."—Union City Commercial.

Infection and Insect Bites Dangerous.

Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breeds quickly in garbage pails, ponds of stagnant water, barns, musty places, etc., are carriers of disease. Every time they bite you, they inject poison into your system from which some dread disease may result. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects Cuts, Bruises and Sores. ### FORMER HICKMAN LADY BURIED HERE FRIDAY.

The remains of Mrs. Mary E. L. Taylor, wife of J. P. Taylor, were brought here from Cairo, Ills., for burial, which occurred at the city cemetery about 10 o'clock Friday morning after brief services by Rev. W. C. Riggs. Mrs. Taylor's useful life came to a close Wednesday night, after an illness of about ten days. Deceased was formerly a resident of this city; in fact she was reared here, but moved with her husband to Cairo about twenty-one years ago. She was born in Georgia in 1866, but in early life came to Hickman with parents, Sam Gouger and wife, who were among the early settlers and prominent families.

Besides her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. J. W. Lockshaw, Mrs. Della Barnes, Miss Madge Taylor and Messrs. Bennett C., Jas. Henry, Will D. and Pleas S. Taylor.

Mrs. Taylor was a good Christian woman and her many friends here will be grieved to learn that she has gone to her reward. She was also a prominent member of the Knights and Ladies of Security. Funeral services were held at the family residence in Cairo at 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

SURPRISES MANY IN HICKMAN

The QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis, is surprising Hickman people. Many have found that this simple remedy drains so much foul matter from the system that A SINGLE DOSE relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. Adler-ika is the most thorough bowel cleanser ever sold.—Helm & Elison.

On Wednesday evening of last week from 8:30 to 11 o'clock, Miss Lucile Gabby delightfully entertained a number of the younger crowd, passing the evening with different games and amusements. Fruit punch and ice cream were served. The guests were: Misses Celeste Roberts, Mildred Thompson, Anna Lynn Dodds, Annie Lee Brown, Carrie May Reid, Irene Thompson, Jane Binford, Mary Tempa Burnett, Messrs. Milton Hackett, Baltzer Dodds, Henry Cowgill, Olney Johnson, John Harper, Leslie Skinner, Lila Choate, Drewry Bondurant and Roy Jurney.

AN EVENING OF WHOLESOME ENJOYMENT

The Silver Wedding of Grandpa and Grandma Tinsy

Auspices Ladies' Aid Society Christian Church.

AT THE COURT HOUSE

Thursday Evening (Tonight), Aug. 6, 1914

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ENTERTAINMENT

The Tinsy daughters stand in line at a miniature reception and receive the guests who are previously announced by the butler. After all, including President and Mrs. Wilson and Madam Patti have arrived, the minister enters, followed by the groom (Grandpa Tinsy), and best man. Six beautifully dressed brides attendants now enter, carrying long ribbons and form an aisle for the bridesmaids, etc., and lastly, the bride (Grandma Tinsy), on Uncle Small's arm. The groom steps forward and to the strains of the wedding march they move forward and pause under the wedding bell, where the most amusing little ceremony, in no wise like the real one, is performed by the minister. After congratulations, refreshments are served and songs are sung at intervals throughout the entertainment.

John Alden and Priscilla sing "A Priscilla." Uncle Small sings "Annie Laurie." Three Tinsy sons sing "Memories of Mother." Matron of Honor sings "Auld Lang Syne." Grandpa Tinsy sings "Dream Days." Tinsy Jr. sings "Gee, I wish I Had a Girl."

RICHARD EDWARD MILLET
CROSSES GREAT DIVIDE.

After an illness of five weeks, Richard Edward Millet, one of Hickman's oldest and most honored citizens, died at his home in this city Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Death was really unexpected. He was much improved Sunday, but suffered a relapse Monday and gradually sank. Bowel disorders, together with the infirmities of age, are assigned as the cause of death.

Mr. Millet was past 79 years of age, but possessed the mental and physical activity of a man half as old. For several years past he has taught bookkeeping for Hickman College, and was considered an expert accountant. He enjoyed activity; which doubtless contributed largely to his well balanced poise and ability to bear up so lightly under the weight of four score years. He had been associated with the social and business life of Hickman for more than a half century. In the early 50's, Mr. Millet embarked in the general merchandise business here, coming from Louisville, where he was born and reared. His store was located in what is now known as the Buchanan building, which was erected by him. This business he conducted for several years, but retired and later followed with splendid success the profession of expert accountant. He also served a short time as sheriff of this county, having been appointed to serve out an unexpired term, and was city judge for three terms. For a short time he was associated with E. Case in the grocery business, but we are unable to give the date of this venture.

When nineteen years of age, Millet was united in marriage with Miss Alecia Atwell, of Louisville. To this union were born three sons—Harry, George and Jack H. Millet, and only the last named survive him. He is also survived by a half sister, Miss Rose Millet, of Louisville, Ky., and a half brother, Marvin Millet, of Russellville, Ky.

Funeral services were conducted at the Millet residence at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the Rev. B. W. Hampton, of Memphis, and the remains were interred at the city cemetery.

The pall bearers were Mayor Tom Dillon, C. B. Hackett, R. Glasier, R. B. Brevard, J. P. Cusick and Judge J. W. Cowgill, all of whom have been residents of Hickman for the past fifty years.

Few, if any, men of this community were held in higher esteem by their fellow citizens than Mr. Millet. He was a quiet scholar, Christian gentleman; a man who practised and held dear every characteristic of honorable manhood and good citizenship. That he dwelt among us for more than a half century and led a life above criticism or reproach is a splendid tribute to his memory.

BECKHAM, CAMDEN AND BARKLEY ARE NOMINEES.

Ex-Governor J. C. W. Beckham, democrat, Ex-Governor A. E. Willson, republican, and Burton Vance, of Louisville, progressive, were nominated for the long term in the United States Senate, according to practically complete returns from the state primaries held Saturday by the three political parties.

Alben W. Barkley, our present congressman, won over Scott, Williams and Swann by a handsome majority.

Only fifty republican votes were cast in this county. The Democrats fell short of their full voting strength by about 50 per cent, many of whom would take no part in the primary. As a whole, little interest was manifested here.

Camden won over Young and Smith by a good majority for the short term senatorship.

The hardest fight was between Beckham and Stanley, and the latter did not concede Beckham's nomination until yesterday. His majority is approximately 2500.

As will be noted by the official returns, Stanley, Young and Barkley carried Fulton county. Mr. Beckham, on account of his former political tricks, was not popular with the people of the west end of the county. He is given credit for having manipulated a shortage of ballots scheme pulled off in this county a few years ago, and, whether true or not, made against him in his race Saturday.

Revised figures in the race for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senator, by counties, follows:

	Beckham	Stanley	McCreary

is a splendid tribute to his memory. The Courier, like hosts of others, will miss him as a friend, a counselor and citizen, but reverence most sincerely the memory of that noble life and our association with him.

Sympathy to those who mourn his loss.

Albert Curtis, a negro, was adjudged insane in Judge Stahr's court Monday and the sheriff carried him to Hopkinsville yesterday. During his examination, he claimed he had been to the sea of Galilee. He also said that he had skinned his head on his pillow.

Ed Haywood, age 63 and a well known business man of Fulton, died Sunday. He was born in Manchester, England, but had lived at Fulton since 1884. His wife and one son survive him.

D. B. Wilson went to Atlanta, Ga., first of the week.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

There is no use trying to deny that the European war is having its effect upon business in other countries. Our government, like the rest, is taking necessary steps to keep our gold from going to the nations involved in war, and many of the large city banks have limited amount of checking on a single account to $100 cash per day, or to 10 per cent of the amount of a deposit. These banks have accounts with many foreigners and are forced to take such steps. On other hand, smaller banks have no occasion to place any limits. The banks of Hickman have plenty of money on hand for handling the regular run of business and do not expect any trouble whatever, nor do they see any panics or financial stringencies ahead. All this talk about "tight money" arises from a misunderstanding of the precautionary measures adopted by the city banks; but even these place no limit on checking accounts—only on the amount of actual cash they will hand out. They are doing the right thing; its for the protection of their customers and business in general.

MITCHELL-BRUE.

A wedding that came as quite a surprise to the bride's many friends was that of Miss Buford Bruer and Mr. N. L. Mitchell, the marriage taking place at the bride's home in this city yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. N. E. Miller, of Fulton, officiating.

Only the immediate members of the family and a few friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Joanna Bruer and one of Hickman's sweetest and most accomplished young ladies. For several years she has taught at Hickman College and is well known to many of our readers. Her husband is a prominent and successful merchant of Texarkana, Texas. After a short visit to his relatives at Rowlett, Ky., they will return to Hickman for a couple of weeks, before going to their home at Texarkana.

Congratulations and best wishes.

GERMANY MUST RELEASE
AMERICAN CITIZENS.

Washington, Aug. 5. — The United States government showed her hand today in regard to her attitude toward Germany when representations were made in an ultimatum to the German government for the immediate release of Americans interned there during the mobilization of German troops.

No time was stipulated by the government for an answer from the German government, but is reported that an answer in reasonable time is expected.

It is unofficially reported that heavy cannonading can be heard off the coast of Maine this morning. The supposition is that German and English warships, both lying in wait for the German vessel laden with gold which put back in port here Tuesday, have come together.

GOOD MEETING.

Subjects for remainder of week at Mt. Hermon.

Thursday: "The Kingdom of God," "Two Sides of the Cross or how a Penitent Robber was Saved."

Friday: "For the Hope of Israel," "What Must I do to be Saved."

Saturday: "The Touch of Christ."

The firm of Ellison Grocery & Hardware Co., is engaged this week in combining their stock in one room. The west room, which has heretofore been used for the grocery and meat department, will be vacated. Since they will be somewhat crowded as a result of the change, Mr. Ellison informs us they will slack off on the implement end of the hardware line. His idea is to concentrate the business which will make it easier handled.

Judson H. Boughton, president, and W. C. Morehead, vice president of the National Light & Power Co., operating the local light and water plant, arrived in Hickman yesterday on business.

Mrs. Alice Amberg and Henry Amberg and family have moved to the old Amberg homestead, near the power house.

L. H. Hopkins, wife and baby, of McEwen, Tenn., are guests of her father, Joe Castleman.

SENATOR SIMMONS SAYS
RIVER BILL WILL PASS.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—“The rivers and harbors appropriation bill will pass the senate during the present session.”

This statement was made in the most unequivocal manner by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, chairman of the finance committee and acting chairman of the committee on commerce, which prepared the waterway budget.

“The opposition to the rivers and harbors bills,” continued Senator Simmons, “is confined to a relatively small number of senators. The large majority of senators feel that it is of the utmost public importance that bill should pass and they have expressed themselves to me in no uncertain terms—this with no reference whatsoever to party proclivities.”

“There are some items in every bill that may be subject to criticism from the standpoint of the character of the government undertaking. I am satisfied, however, that there are but few items in the present rivers and harbors bill that are subject to the criticism spoken of.”

“It is true that the total appropriation carried in the bill is larger than usual, but there is a well-founded demand in the country for a broader policy on the part of the government for the improvement of our waterways, a demand justified by the high consideration of a sound public policy.”

“The large part of the rivers and harbors bill is for the improvement of our harbors, both on the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard, and on the Great Lakes, including the river approaches to these harbors. It is a well-known fact that our harbors have not been improved as they should have been and that the opening of the Panama Canal imposes upon Congress the duty of greater activity and liberality in the improvement of these harbors.”

“The bill deals more liberally with the Mississippi river than other bills, but it is felt that this wise policy is imperatively demanded by the country, which has been emphasized by the devastating floods of recent years. The bill deals more liberally with the intercoastal system of waterways than former bills, but this is a scheme that has been thoroughly thought out and on which sentiment has been crystallized.”

Some persons have criticized projects in the bill located in distant sections of the country, but these persons have made no criticism of projects located in their immediate vicinity. The small projects in the bill, when all the facts are known, compare favorably in importance, within the territory affected, with the larger projects.

The failure of the present rivers and harbors bill would within a few months stop work on more than half the projects provided for in the measure. Harbors improvements would largely cease. The Mississippi river system would be almost abandoned and great damage would be done to the machinery employed upon the several works.

“I have tried to keep in close touch with the senate throughout this session and, knowing the sentiment that prevails as to the merit of the rivers and harbors bill, I feel confident the pending bill will pass at this session of Congress.”

Sen. Simmons' optimism for the rivers and harbors bill should not deter the friends of the measure throughout the country from urging their senators to remain here after the passage of the antitrust and trade commission bills in order to make sure of its success.

It was our misfortune to miss hearing Rev. R. M. Walker's sermon last Sunday evening, but we've heard many expressions of appreciation from members of his audience. Rev. Walker is said to have dealt with existing social evils in a manner that left a lasting impression. The time is ripe—and past ripe—for such a campaign as he has undertaken. It is pretty hard to admit it, but the truth is Hickman is rotten to the core in several ways. If you stand for a cleaner, better town, give Rev. Walker your aid and encouragement.

WHITE SLAVERY CHARGED AGAINST DRESDEN CITIZEN.

Dresden, Tenn., July 30. —Ed Burton, of Dresden, is under arrest with charges of white slavery placed against him by government officers, who worked on his case for more than two months.

Burton, it is alleged, persuaded Mrs. Ruby Capps to leave her husband and home near Dresden on April 14, 1914, and accompany him in a buggy to Mayfield, Ky., where they remained several days before going to Memphis.

From that city they went to Little Rock, then to Kansas City, and from there they went to Southeast Missouri, where they took up living quarters in a saw mill camp, the government asserts. They got into Hickman, Ky., stranded. Finally they left there for Fulton, where, according to authorities, she became too ill to travel, and was deserted by Burton, who returned to his wife at Dresden.

Burton has been arrested and placed in jail at Dresden. His preliminary hearing will be held Saturday and in default of bond he will be kept in jail here, subject to having his case placed before a grand jury in the United States district court at Memphis.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sweet remembrance of Dula May Gray, born July 25, 1887, died July 24, 1914.

“It is so hard” such was the sad expression passed from every one as they passed the lonely casket. But weep not dear ones as they who have no hopes, for she is not dead but sleeping. May we all live nearer to God so that when the times come we can be like dear Dula, ready to go at the Lord's command. As the chilly waters of death closed around her she shrank not. May told them it was the Lord's will. I must go. How we miss that dear loved one as we look at her vacant chair. But just across the river she is waiting for you there. After brief funeral services she was laid to rest in the Antioch cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

'Tis so hard to say farewell
To one so fondly cherished
Her future life was planned so well
But now, alas, hopes are perished.
Hearts are weeping for thee,
Dula, darling
But, alas, all vain are tears.
'Twill not bring thee back among us

Though we weep for many years,
Fare thee well, our own dear loved one

On the bright and golden shore
We will try to meet thee Dula
Where we'll meet to part no more.

—One who loved her.

Constipation Causes Sickness.

Don't permit yourself to become constipated, as your system immediately begins to absorb poison from the backed-up waste matter. Use Dr. King's New Life Pills and keep well. There is no better safeguard against illness. Just take one dose tonight. 25c. at your druggist.

INFANT DIES FRIDAY.

Harold, the 8 months old son Monroe Holley and wife, of near Cayce, died suddenly Friday morning. The child had been sick for several days but was much improved up to a short time before its death.

Rev. Will Brown preached the funeral at Liberty Saturday.

NOW HER FRIENDS

HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs.
Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and for page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper. E69-E

J. M. Pullen, official photographer for the occasion, reports a surprise dinner given last Sunday by her children and grandchildren at the home of Mrs. Susan J. Cook. Mrs. Cook was born Oct. 29, 1827. She is the mother of ten children, grandmother of fourteen, great-grandmother of 18 and great great grandmother of 1. Grandma Cook, owing to advanced age, has been feeble for many years and weighs only 62½ pounds. The family lives two miles south of Cayce.

County
School NotesBy Miss Virginia Luten
County Supt

Crutchfield is adding a new room to the school building. Three teachers have been employed for next year.

The school rally for division No. 4 will be held at New Hope August 29th. The other schools included in this division are Sycamore, Blue Pond, Sassafras Ridge, Island No. 8, Madrid Bend, Hamby Pond and Tyler. These schools are preparing an exhibit of the work and also a good program for that day. All are invited to be present. Prizes have been offered for the best work in the different grades.

Carl Park, of Ohio county, arrived Friday to teach the Lodge school which begins this week.

We are glad to see teachers and pupils interested in keeping school houses and grounds neat and attractive. One teacher had a meeting of the pupils before the school opened and had a regular "clean-up day." Another devoted the first Saturday afternoon to the same worthy cause. A clean, well ventilated school house means better health, better work and improvement in ways too numerous to mention.

Beech Grove and Graves schools opened this week with Miss Carline Truman, of Ohio county, and Mrs. Lillis Stanley as teachers.

We regret to say that in a few districts locks have been broken on the school house and cistern houses. Trustees have been instructed by the school board to have locks put on same and teachers will see that houses are locked after school closes each day. School cisterns are not public watering places, nor is the school property a public camping ground. The county school tax is spent to keep the school property in repair and to provide good water for the school children, hence those who continue to damage the school property will be reported to the proper officials.

Malaria or Chills &amp; Fever

Prescription No. 666 is prepared especially for MALARIA or CHILLS &amp; FEVER. Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. It acts on the liver better than Calomel and does not gripe or sicken. 25c

ANOTHER VACANT CHAIR.

Dark and heavy was the cloud that spread over the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Brasfield, near Hickman, Ky., July 10, 1914, when the death messenger called for one of their beloved daughters, Corinne, aged twenty years and six days, wife of Frank Wheeler. Funeral services were conducted at Mt. Hermon July 11, by Bro. J. E. Stuart, burial in Hickman cemetery.

Corinne was a noble girl, a dutiful daughter, a beloved sister, a devoted young wife, a faithful Christian, and many hearts have been made unspeakably sad by her departure. She was reared by Christian parents, was the oldest of seven bright, happy, promising children, accepted the Savior at the age of twelve, and was an earnest, useful member of the Mt. Hermon congregation.

Until within a few months of her death she seemed to have fair promise of long life, but became a victim of tuberculosis, which soon proved fatal. We sympathize with the grief-stricken family, deeply and sincerely, having passed through a similar experience by losing the oldest of our own dear children at about exactly the same age.

May earth and heaven deal tenderly with the bereaved husband, parents, brother and sisters, and give them comfort in this sad trial. There is a household of faith knowing whom to trust in this sad hour of sorrow.

Fields spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. A. B. Johnston.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly

The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out Malaria, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children. 5c

The Courier has on hand for free distribution a number of copies of U. S. Dept. of Agriculture bulletins on the subject of strawberry, raspberry, tomato and cabbage culture. The Young Men's Business League will undertake in a short time to organize or put on foot strawberry growing on a commercial scale. As cabbage goes along with first year work in strawberry culture, we would like to place these bulletins in the hands of all farmers who are interested in this movement. It will not be a half-hearted effort on the part of the league when work is formally taken up. With a sufficient number of acres pledged, they will look after the shipping facilities and getting buyers in Hickman. It might be stated in advance that at least 100 acres must be pledged to berries in order to properly launch the movement. Buyers would not be interested nor could the special shipping facilities be secured on a smaller basis. With 20 or 25 acres already promised before the matter has even been given more than passing attention, it would seem that little trouble will be experienced in getting more than the required number of acres. Strawberries will beat corn or cotton all hollow from a point of dollars and cents per acre, and bring in the coin at a time when a little pocket change is needed. Call and get some of this literature and familiarize yourself on this subject. This is one way of cutting down mortgages and building up bank accounts.

A protracted meeting will begin at Spring Valley Saturday night. Rev. Hampton, a gifted speaker, will do the preaching and good sermons and singing are assured.

Jno. Harpole has returned from several days visit in Clinton.

CHANGE YOUR SEED WHEAT

Sell ten bushels of your common wheat at market price, say 75 cents, making $7.50. For this sum, $7.50, we will send you enough of the wonderful Marvelous wheat to sow ten acres.

You're skeptical? We don't blame you! It will cost a stamp or postal card to get the proof how thousands of others in 1913 and 1914 saved money on their seed wheat and grew the greatest crops they ever did.

We quote just a few extracts from hundreds of letters on file in our office and can be seen by interested people.

It will make 2 bu. to 1 of old kinds.—C. L. T., Madison Co., Ky. Will yield 50 bu. per acre. Neighbors buying seed.—W. M. P., Scott Co., Ky. It is certainly marvelous; estimated to make 49 bu. to acre.—G. W. P., Franklin Co., Ky. This wheat has been the talk of the community.—C. L. S., Hart Co., Ky. 50 to 60 bu. per acre. Beats all.—L. S., Miami Co., Ind. One acre equals 3 of old kinds.—W. J. W., Union Co., Tenn. 63½ bu. per acre, fully 3 times others.—H. B. A., Warlick Co., Ind. 100 bu. from 1 bu. sown.—W. E. G., Preble Co., O. I estimate my 8 acres will thresh 500 bushels.—H. B. A., Warlick Co., Ind. Heads 5 to 6 inches; 85 to 100 grains to head, with old kinds only 25 to 30 grains.—J. W. S., Highland Co., O. Yields double of old kinds.—U. S. N., Carter Co., Tenn. 55 bu. per acre.—C. H., Lincoln Co., N. C. New wheat 40 bu. to acre, others 15 bu. Counted 96 heads from one grain of wheat.—J. R. McH., Stewart Co., Tenn.

If you grow winter wheat you owe it to yourself to learn all about this new wheat. It's money saved right now and more bushels of wheat for you next harvest. Whether you sow one acre or many this should interest you more than anything else printed in this paper. Send your order from this advertisement or write to day for catalog, photographs, complete letters from growers etc.—O. K. Seed Store Dept. 725, Indianapolis, Indiana.

BROWNSVILLE NEWS.

Mrs. Tommie Reagan, of Arkansas, is visiting Miss Pearl Williams.—Miss Jessie Ezell was the guest of Miss Hazel Edwards Sunday.—Miss Carrie Anderson is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Lewis, of Memphis.—Mrs. Ada Watson, of Mayfield, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. J. Jones.—Eld. J. B. Housley filled his regular appointment Sunday morning and night at Brownsville Baptist church.—Mrs. Iva Hall and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. L. Dotson.—J. L. and Leonard Dotson and Harvey Wiles are spending the week at Markham, Tenn.—Mrs. Fields spent a few days last week in Cairo.

LUSK-DOTSON.

Clinton Lusk and Miss Etta Dotson were united in marriage Monday, Aug. 3, at 3 o'clock at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Jas. B. Housley, in the presence of a few friends.

The parlor was made beautiful with decorations of pot flowers and vines.

The bride is a popular young lady of the Brownsville neighborhood and has a host of friends.

The groom is a citizen of the same neighborhood and is very fortunate in securing such a lovely young lady for his ride. Congratulations.

SPECIAL TERM CALLED.

County Atty. Roney informs us that he believes no change will be made in the program of calling a special term of Fulton circuit court at Hickman on Monday, Aug. 17th, for trying Son Neeley, charged with assaulting Mrs. Noah Mansfield. The call was made by the late Judge R. L. Smith. Of course, a new judge takes his place, but it is of the opinion of local attorneys that nothing can now prevent the special term being called, even should there be a desire to delay the trial.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days

Your druggist will refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure any case of Itching, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days. The first application gives ease and rest. 50c.

As a whole Fulton county is going to make a good cotton crop—and there won't be any of it sold as low as two cents, either.
